

OCBC AL-AMIN DONATES 10 WHEELCHAIRS TO PAEDIATRIC WARD

SELANGOR, 19 December 2013 – OCBC Al-Amin Bank Berhad recently donated 10 brand new wheelchairs to the Paediatric Ward of Hospital Ampang in Pandan Mewah, with the hope of adding to the hospital's existing ones so recuperating children can get better in greater comfort.

The presentation of the wheelchairs to the Hospital was made even merrier when the Bank's staff led the way with a repertoire of song, dance and fun with the children. Staff of OCBC Al-Amin also chipped in to make a RM2,000 cash contribution.

The ward was decorated with balloons, colourful mats and interactive posters which created the perfect ambience for the children and OCBC Al-Amin staff to have a rollicking good time together.

A range of story books were also presented by the Bank to ensure the kids don't miss out on their reading when hospitalised.

The wheelchairs and books were handed over to the Hospital by the Bank's Director & CEO Syed Abdull Aziz Syed Kechik, together with poster frames for the ward's use.

Syed Abdull Aziz has been spearheading the team's annual visits to paediatric wards of government hospitals since 2010.

"It's our fourth year visiting a paediatric ward as a team and each year we try to visit a different hospital to cater to their needs. We are very happy to be able to put a smile on the faces of the little ones here," he said.

Happy faces all over

Syed Abdull, together with his staff, distributed goodie bags containing OCBC Al-Amin sports bottle, towels, packet drinks, cereals, biscuits and also chocolates to the children and parents at the Ward.

During the event, the kids were also entertained to a magic show by Zaza the Clown, who got them laughing their hearts out.

Expressing the Hospital's gratefulness to OCBC Al-Amin, its Deputy Medical Director Dr Roosli Mohamed Salleh said it was indeed heartwarming to receive the ten wheelchairs from a caring corporate citizen.

"We are thankful for the fun get-together session organised by the Bank." he added.
