

OCBC BANK CELEBRATES “THE AMAZING PARTNER” IN PROPERTY DEVELOPERS

Kuala Lumpur, 15 December 2014 – OCBC Bank (Malaysia) Berhad recently treated over 300 of its partnering housing developers and other guests to an amazing night of circus acts with delightfully “dark” twists.

The annual OCBC Developers’ Appreciation Night, hosted by the Bank’s Mortgage Sales Department, was held at the One World Hotel and featured supple limbs and artistic moves that left the audience in sheer amazement. And as the evening moved along the audience was also caught singing along to the tunes of favourites such as Price Tag by Jessie J. Other performance highlights that lit up the evening included a Marrionate Dance and Aerial Acrobatics.

According to OCBC Bank’s Head of Consumer Financial Services & Group Wealth Management Mr Lim Wyson the annual appreciation night was a time to recognise the mutuality in partnership between the Bank and developers, and provided the perfect platform to further cement ties.

“Our developers are our amazing partners and we are grateful for the fruitful partnership developed with them over the years. We are committed to sustaining these ties and tonight represents a small gesture of thanks on our part for what they have done for our Bank,” he said.

OCBC Bank has an extensive range of home loan products in its stable, including Islamic home financing, loans for renovation and refurbishment and regular premium life Insurance financing through a partnership with sister company, Great Eastern Life Assurance.

OCBC Bank was the first bank to launch property financing in Australia for cities like Sydney, Melbourne and Perth. In the UK, the Bank is one of the end-financiers for the celebrated Battersea Power Station project.
