- 6.4 From (and including) the First Optional Redemption Date and in accordance with Clause 5.1, the ITI Capital Securities will bear coupon at the Floating Coupon Rate. The Floating Coupon Rate for the relevant Coupon Period shall be such offered rate as determined by the Calculation Agent plus the Margin.
- (ii) If such offered rate does not so appear, or if the relevant page is unavailable, the Calculation Agent will, on such date, request the Reference Banks to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation to leading banks in the Kuala Lumpur inter bank market for six-month deposits in Ringgit Malaysia as at 1100 hours (Kuala Lumpur time) on the Coupon Determination Date in question. selected by the Calculation Agent are quoting, on the relevant Coupon Determination Date, to leading banks in Kuala Lumpur for a period of three months, except that, if the banks so selected by the Calculation Agent are not quoting as mentioned above, the Floating Coupon Rate for such Coupon Period shall be the Floating Coupon Rate in effect for the last preceding Coupon Period to which one of the preceding sub-paragraphs of this Clause 5.6 shall have applied.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer shall not be obligated to pay, and shall not pay, such coupon payment on the Coupon Payment Date (and such coupon payment shall not be considered to be due or payable) if the aggregate of the amount of such coupon (if paid in full), together with the sum of any other coupon/dividends and other distributions originally scheduled to be paid (whether or not paid in whole or part) during the Issuer’s then-current fiscal year on the ITI Capital Securities or Parity Obligations, were to exceed the Distributable Profits as of the relevant Coupon Payment Date; or

- 6.6 Non-payment of such coupon amount, whether in full or in part, pursuant to a Payment Limitation Condition, will not constitute or be deemed a default by the Issuer for any purpose whatsoever. Accordingly, such unpaid coupon amount shall cease to accrue or accumulate for the benefit of the ITI Capital Securities Holders or entitle the ITI Capital Securities Holders to any claim in respect thereof against the Issuer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, or anything contained in this Trust Deed, and for the avoidance of doubt, any coupon which is unpaid as a result of a Payment Limitation Condition shall be deemed to be a Deferred Coupon Amount and shall, subject to the Deferral Limit, be payable by the Issuer in accordance with Clause 5.17 below.

Any such deferral will not constitute or be deemed a default by the Issuer for any purpose whatsoever.
- 6.9 In the event that the total aggregate Deferred Coupon Amount exceeds or any additional Deferred Coupon Amount would result in the total aggregate Deferred Coupon Amount exceeding, the Deferral Limit, the deferral of any such Deferred Coupon Amount in excess of the Deferral Limit shall be subject to the prior approval of BNM and MAS. To the extent that BNM and/or MAS do not approve the deferral of any such Deferred Coupon Amount in excess of the Deferral Limit, the Issuer's obligations to make payment of such Deferred Coupon Amount in excess of the Deferral Limit shall cease to exist and such payments shall no longer accrue or become due and payable.

Coupon Deferral Settlement

- 6.10 If the Issuer defers the payment of any coupon amount on any Coupon Payment Date pursuant to Clause 5.12 of the Trust Deed ("Limitation on Payment of Coupon"), the Issuer shall, if the Payment Limitation Condition(s) ceases to exist and subject to the Approvals referred in Clause 8.2, sub-paragraph c, of the Trust Deed being obtained and the cancellation of any Deferred Coupon Amount in excess of the Deferral Limit referred to in Clause 5.16 of the Trust Deed, pay the relevant Deferred Coupon Amount from the proceeds of a fresh issue of replacement securities, in full on the next Coupon Payment Date, pursuant to the procedures set out under Clause 8.2 of the Trust Deed ("Replacement Securities Event; Satisfaction Mechanism"). No interest shall accrue on any Deferred Coupon Amount.
