The first issuance of Subordinated Notes under the MTN programme is expected to be for RM250 million with the right to upsize upon completion of the book-build process.

In a recent presentation to institutional and corporate investors, Ms. Tan Ai Chin, Head of Investment Banking of OCBC Bank said,

"The proposed issuance marks OSK Investment Bank's maiden bank capital issuance. With our experience in the pioneering of various bank capital instruments in Malaysia, we are indeed pleased to share our expertise and experience with OSK Investment Bank's in its effort to strengthen and manage its capital more efficiently to support its aspiration of being a significant player in the domestic investment banking arena and also to expand regionally."

OSK Investment Bank's Head of Group Corporate and Legal Affairs Mr. Woon Chong Boon said,

"The proposed Tier 2 capital allows us to manage our capital and balance sheet more efficiently in order to enhance returns to the bank and to our shareholders. It will increase our Capital Base and will allow us to undertake bigger ticket transactions and open up new business opportunities for the bank. The infusion of Tier 2 capital will strengthen our competitiveness in the marketplace and enhance our ability to serve our clientele better."

Standard Chartered Bank's Head of Financial Markets and Co-Head of Wholesale Bank Mr. Sandeep Bahl said,

"We are very pleased to once again arrange and place another transaction for OSK Investment Bank. In over 10 years, our deep relationship with OSK Investment Bank has enabled us to help the investment bank's corporate expansion activities in Malaysia and across the region. Our international capabilities and strong footprint in Asia, Africa and the Middle East, gives us the edge to support our clients in Malaysia even in challenging market condition."
