

TERESA TENG SHOW SENDS 500 OCBC CUSTOMERS OVER THE MOON

Kuala Lumpur, 19 May 2011 – OCBC Bank (Malaysia) Berhad recently hosted about 500 of its corporate and treasury customers to the Dama Orchestra’s theatre production “The Moon Speaks For My Heart – Teresa Teng, Her Life, Her Songs,” a spectacular musical performance on the iconic world-acclaimed Chinese songbird of the 1970s-1980s.

The performance, which came complete with strong vocals and solid showmanship from the cast of 25 talented Malaysian actors, musicians, dancers and singers sent the audience over the moon and hypnotised into rapt attention.

Among the pieces that had the audience swaying along were The Moon Speaks For My Heart, When Will You Return, Subaru and Flashdance... What a Feeling.

This is the fourth year OCBC Bank is hosting such an event for its customers. Last year, the Bank’s customers were thrilled by the Dama Orchestra’s rendition of Glitz & Glamour, where they deftly combined Chinese oldies and music from the Old Shanghai with the Silver Screen of Shaw Brothers and Cathay cinemas.

"We are pleased to have provided our loyal customers with a good time through the renowned Dama Orchestra's performances and this year is truly exceptional as Teresa Teng was indeed an icon to those who remember her from that era. Tonight's performance was particularly exciting for us as we were all greatly mesmerised by the many classics of the legendary superstar," he said.

In 1994, the musicians made their debut in the Malaysian performing arts scene with their sold-out concert, An Evening Of Chinese Chamber Music.

Led by its music director, Khor Seng Chew, Dama has performed music works from both the east and the west, as well as music pieces from around the world. Hailed as Malaysia's music ambassador abroad, Dama and its talented team of musicians and singers have performed in China, the UK, America, Canada, Hong Kong, Taiwan and neighbouring countries like Australia, Indonesia and Singapore.
