APPENDIX I: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1) What happens if I perform an Overseas transaction on 28th October 2024, i.e., a day before the revised fees & charges? Will my transaction be subject to the Foreign Exchange Mark-Up?

Overseas transactions posted on 29th October 2024 onwards will be subject to the 1.25% Foreign Exchange Mark-Up. In this case, the transaction made on 28th October 2024 (transaction date) and posted on 29th October 2024 (posted date) will incur the new fees.

2) What is the difference between the transaction date and the posted date?

Transaction date: The date when a purchase is made.

Posted date: The date when the transaction is received by the card issuer, OCBC Bank. Settlement of transactions made by merchants may take a few days after the transaction date.
